

Diversity and inclusivity statement

I recognise and respect differences and aim to foster positive relationships with all of my clients based on a shared sense of cohesion and belonging.

I judge people only by the content of their character and believe love is love for one and all.

Erika Biddlecombe April 2021